

United States

California

Charisse Rudolph, Bishop

I am a published author of several books that support personal growth and the law of attraction. My best selling book is called “The Art of Facilitation, with 28 Equine Assisted Services.” I train people how to partner with horses for the personal growth of their clients. I am a retreat leader that empowers women to live the life they dream. My brand “The Leadership Lady” changed in 2017, to the “Goddess of Fun and Light.” I have a holistic approach offering Drumming Circles, Therapeutic Art, Equine Assisted Services, and I am a certified HeartMath Institute Coach and Trainer. I live in the Eastern Sierra Nevada Mountains, in Bishop California. Google me for more info.

Mayra McCullough, Calabasas

I founded Coach2Edify Foundation (C2E) in 2011, a 501(c)3 non-profit dedicated to foster education on regenerative wellness and a laboratory of co-creative practices. I began my work in Conscious Evolution studying with Barbara Marx Hubbard in 2014, and shortly afterwards initiated a Resonant Core Group using the Co-Creators Handbook as a guide. In 2016 this group raised funds to send its founders to a Living Co-Creation Retreat at Hummingbird Community in New Mexico, and I’ve been an Ambassador of Co-Creation ever since!

I co-produced the first Living Co-Creation Workshop in southern California in 2017, which gave birth to four new co-creative groups. My current passion is to gain mastery on financial expansion through co-creative practices for social enterprises and non-profits.